PAROLE ORDER

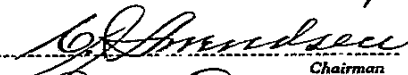

Minnesota State Reformatory

ST. CLOUD

TO Carl J. Hammerberg NO. 5148

At a regular meeting of the State Board of Parole held June 1, 1922 your parole was authorized to take effect June 30, 1922. The Board having confidence in you, and desiring to test your character, and your ability to correctly deport yourself in society, do, by virtue of the authority conferred in them by law, authorize this parole.

Employment has been provided for you with Mr. Thompson, Address 1208 East Fifth Street, Duluth, Minnesota.

You will proceed directly to his home, or to the place to which he may direct you, and there remain in his employ until you receive your final release, or until you have the consent of the Board to change. As soon as possible after reaching your destination you will report to your employer or to Mr. D. H. Enickerbecker the agent of the Board, show him this parole, and write the Superintendent that you have arrived at your destination. Report to the Superintendent and to Mr. J. H. DeWitt, State Agent, St. Paul, Minn., on the 20th day of each month thereafter, upon blanks furnished you, countersigned by your employer, or by the Agent of the Board, which must be correctly and completely filled and all questions answered, and the report promptly mailed in duplicate to the Superintendent and the State Agent.

Inmates on parole are not permitted to marry without the consent of the State Board of Parole.

You are cautioned to conduct yourself honestly, avoiding evil or low associates, to abstain from the use of intoxicating drinks, cigarettes or snuff under all circumstances, to avoid public gathering places, such as saloons or dance halls, or places where you might come in contact with objectionable company, or get in disputes or altercations, and to spend your evenings at home.

You are invited to address the Superintendent or State Agent at any time, and their aid and counsel will always be at your service. In case you find it necessary or desirable to change employment or residence, you will first get the consent of the Board through the Superintendent or the State Agent. Should you lose your situation, or become ill, you will notify the Superintendent or State Agent at once.
